Letter from the Commissioner

October 1, 1999

The Honorable Frank O'Bannon Governor, State of Indiana State House, Room 206 Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

Dear Governor O'Bannon,

Accompanying this letter is the Department of Revenue's 1999 Charity Gaming Annual Report. I hope you will find this report to be both informative and an accurate accounting of the past fiscal year's charity gaming activities statewide.

The included financial information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4.

Sincerely,

Kenneth L. Miller, Commissioner Indiana Department of Revenue

History of Indiana Charity Gaming

In June, 1992, the Indiana Department of Revenue was given the responsibility of enforcing charity gaming laws in Indiana. Only qualified not-for-profit organizations can legally conduct charity gaming events in Indiana. These gaming events are limited to bingo, charity game nights, door prizes, festival events, raffles, and the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Organizations must be licensed and registered for each type of charity gaming event they want to conduct.

Which Organizations Qualify?

An organization may conduct legal charity gaming events if it is a bona fide educational, religious, senior citizen, veteran, or civic/fraternal/charitable organization operating in Indiana, and is exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

The not-for-profit organizations that are eligible to engage in Indiana charity gaming events are defined in Title 4, Article 32, of the Indiana Code. A brief description of these organizations is as follows:

Bona Fide Civic Organization

A branch, chapter, or lodge of a local, national, or state organization that is not-for-profit and primarily operated for charitable, civic, or fraternal purposes.

Bona Fide Educational Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit, whose primary purpose is educational in nature, and is designed to develop the capabilities of individuals by instruction in public or private elementary and secondary schools, as well as colleges and universities.

Bona Fide Political Organization

An association, committee, fund, party, or other organization that is established and operated for either directly or indirectly accepting contributions and making expenditures for an exempt purpose, as defined in Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code). These organizations are the Democratic Party, Republican Party, Independent Party, etc.

Note: A political candidate's committee is not a political organization by this definition.

Bona Fide Religious Organization

An organization, church, or body of communicants that operates on a not-for-profit basis and primarily for religious purposes. The organization must operate under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and provide written documentation as such.

Bona Fide Senior Citizens Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit and has at least 15 members who are at least 60 years old. The purpose of the organization is to advance and support the causes of the elderly and retired persons.

Bona Fide Veterans Organization

A local organization, or a branch, chapter, or lodge of a national or state organization that is not-for-profit, chartered by the United States Congress, and whose members are or were in the United States Armed Forces. The purpose of the organization is for the mutual advancement and support of the organization's membership and patriotic causes.

All organizations that meet one of the preceding requirements must also have been in active and continuous existence for at least 5 years, or be affiliated with a parent organization that has been in existence and operating for at least 5 years. Except where a qualified organization or its affiliate is having a convention or other annual meeting of its membership, charity gaming events may only be conducted in the county where the Indiana principal office is located.

Any hospital licensed under IC 16-21, a health facility licensed under IC 16-28, or a psychiatric facility licensed under IC 12-25, may conduct charity gaming events under certain circumstances.

Being exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code does not ensure that an organization is eligible to conduct legal charity gaming events. The types of organizations that do not qualify include federal credit unions, pension trusts, and generally those established primarily for literary, scientific, and social purposes.

What Are Legal Charity Gaming Activities?

Qualified not-for-profit organizations may conduct certain types of legal charity gaming activities in Indiana. These activities include bingo, charity game nights, door prizes, festival events, and raffles, as well as the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Individuals participating in licensed events must be at least 18 years old. Definitions for most of the activities follow.

Bingo

A bingo game is played with regulation bingo cards, pads, or sheets. A player covers the numbers that are called out by the announcer. The winner of each game is the player who is the first to properly cover the announced pattern of squares on the bingo surface.

Door Prizes

A door prize is awarded to a person based solely upon the person's attendance at an event, or the purchase of a ticket to attend an event.

Pull Tabs

A pull tab is either a single, folded, banded ticket, or a two-ply card with a perforated break-open tab that has a hidden symbol that determines the winner. The prize must be fully described on the inside of the ticket.

Punchboards

A punchboard is a board or card that contains a grid or sections that hide the random opportunity to win a prize based on the results of punching a single section to reveal either a prize amount or a symbol.

Raffles

A raffle is the selling of chances or tickets to win a prize awarded through a random drawing.

Other Games

Other types of games that may be licensed include cards, dice, wheel games (roulette), and spindles (wheel of fortune style games). These types of games are allowed at "Charity Game Nights" and "Festival" events.

Midway-Style Games and Games of Skill, such as cranes, darts, target shooting, etc., are not regulated by the charity gaming laws or licensed by the Charity Gaming Section.

Types of Licenses

The six different types of licenses available are as follows:

- 1. Annual Bingo License
- 2. Charity Game Night License
- 3. Door Prize License
- 4. Festival License
- 5. Raffle License
- 6. Special Bingo License

Each type of license allows an organization to conduct a limited number of charity gaming events within certain prize limitations. There are also restrictions on how many times an organization may receive each type of license during the year.

Annual Bingo License

The Annual Bingo License is available for those organizations that conduct bingo events throughout the year. This type of license allows for the following games to be played:

- 1. Door Prize drawings
- 2. Multiple Bingo events
- 3. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

This also is the license used by organizations selling pull tabs, punchboards and tip boards throughout the year, even if they don't play bingo.

Charity Game Night License

Charity Game Nights are commonly referred to as "Las Vegas Nights" or "Monte Carlo Nights". This type of license allows for the following games to be played:

- 1. Card games
- 2. Dice games
- 3. Door Prize drawings
- 4. Roulette wheel games
- 5. Spindle games
- 6. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

(The wagering on banking and percentage games, bookmaking activities, numbers games, pinball machines, or slot machines are not included in these legal charity gaming events.)

Door Prize License

A Door Prize License may be needed when an organization gives away door prizes as a fund-raising event. This type of license allows for the following games to be played:

- 1. Door prize drawings
- 2. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

Festival License

The festival license permits one (1) organization to conduct a variety of charity gaming events for up to four (4) consecutive days. All of these events have to be conducted within certain limitations. This type of license allows for the following games to be played:

- 1. Bingo games
- 2. Charity Game Night event
- 3. Door Prize drawings
- 4. One (1) Raffle drawing event
- 5. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

Raffle License

A Raffle License is needed when an organization holds a raffle drawing as a fund-raising event. This type of license allows the following game to be played:

- 1. Door Prize drawings
- 2. Raffle drawings
- 3. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

Special Bingo License

The second type of bingo license is a Special Bingo License. This license is usually used by those organizations who want to hold bingo events only occasionally, and not weekly, throughout the year. This license is valid for only one location and time. This license may also be used by Annual Bingo License holders who want to conduct a bingo event on a day that is not listed on their annual license. This type of license allows for the following games to be played:

- 1. One (1) Bingo event
- 2. Door Prize drawings
- 3. The sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards

Contracting with an individual or group to operate a gaming event on behalf of a qualified organization is a Class D Felony. (IC 4-32-12)

License Fees

The fee for the first license in any category is $25.

For a subsequent license, fees are based on the gross receipts from the previous event for which the same type of license was held.

These receipts include:

- 1. The income from all gaming activities, including the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards.
- 2. The sale of tangible personal property specifically sold at the gaming event. Some items commonly sold at these events include card dobbers, good luck dolls, key chains, etc.
- 3. Concessions which are sold specifically at the gaming event.

*The Indiana Department of Revenue received numerous late-filed charity gaming returns for FY99 gaming activity. These late returns, which were filed after July 1, 1999, are not included in this Annual Report, though they total $17,627,109 in gross revenues from 160 organizations.

Charity gaming license fees are based on the following chart:

Gross Revenues

$ 2,500,000	$ 3,000,000	$ 22,500
$ 3,000,000	$	$ 25,000

Manufacturers and Distributors

All business entities that desire to manufacture, distribute, or sell the following items in Indiana must be licensed by the Indiana Department of Revenue. These items include bingo sheets, devices, equipment, and other supplies to be used in playing bingo, as well as pull tabs, punchboards and tip boards.

A manufacturer's annual license fee is $3,000.00. There were 12 manufacturers' licenses issued in Fiscal Year 1999, 11 of which were located out-of-state. The total fee collected was $36,000.00.

A distributor's annual license fee is $2,000. There were 59 distributors' licenses issued in Fiscal Year 1999, 15 of which were located out-of-state. The total fee collected was $118,000.00.

An excise tax is imposed on the distribution of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards, in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the wholesale price. For Fiscal Year 1999, manufacturers and distributors remitted $5,619,200.00 in gaming card excise taxes, fees and penalties, as compared with $5,231,100.00 during Fiscal Year 1998.

	FY 1998	FY 1999
Excise Taxes	$1,222,700.00	$1,313,100.00
Misc. Fees	$3,950,100.00	$4,264,600.00
Penalties	$ 58,300.00	$ 41,500.00
Totals	$5,231,100.00	$5,619,200.00

Administrative Highlights 1999

The Charity Gaming Section of the Indiana Department of Revenue was created to administer charity gaming laws. This section, along with field investigators from the Criminal Investigation Division, makes sure licensed organizations are operating within charity gaming laws and regulations. Under IC 4-32-10-6, the Indiana Department of Revenue is required to remit charity gaming surplus revenue into the "Build Indiana Fund". This revenue is generated by license fees, as well as excise taxes and penalties. The Department deposited $7,500,000.00 into this fund during Fiscal Year 1999.

Taxpayer Assistance

During Fiscal Year 1999, the Charity Gaming Section of the Indiana Department of Revenue assisted 373 taxpayers in the walk-in assistance center, which was down 21 from 394 in Fiscal Year 1998, and answered 14,163 telephone calls in Fiscal Year 1999, compared to 13,983 in Fiscal Year 1998.

Education/Form Revision

During Fiscal Year 1999, there were no training seminars conducted by the Charity Gaming Section; and, there were no new changes made to charity gaming forms.

Legislation

There was no new legislation passed during Fiscal Year 1999 that affected charity gaming laws and regulations.

During FY 1996, the "90/60 rule," which requires organizations that receive at least 90% of their total gross revenues from gaming activities to give at least 60% away to other charities, went into effect. Six (6) organizations were affected in Fiscal Year 1999 by this rule. They are as follows:

- 1. American Legion Post 52 (Attica, Fountain County)*
- 2. Amvets Post 101 (Bloomington, Monroe County)
- 3. Fraternal Order of Police 100 (Jeffersonville, Clark County)*
- 4. Friends of Fairview (New Albany, Floyd County)*
- 5. VFW Post 1257 Ladies Auxiliary (Martinsville, Morgan County)
- 6. VFW Post 2999 Irvington Ladies Auxiliary (Indianapolis, Marion County)

* Denotes organizations that were able to distribute the necessary funds to unrelated organizations and obtain new licenses.

Enforcement

During Fiscal Year 1999, sixteen (16) investigations were finalized and submitted for determination of civil penalties based on violations committed. Assessments for civil penalties totaled $68,000.00 and additional license fees of $3,600.00. One investigation lead to the discovery of gaming violations by five (5) other organizations and one (1) operator.

Note:

AN OPERATOR MUST BE A MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING FOR AT LEAST ONE (1) YEAR.

NEITHER OPERATORS NOR WORKERS AT AN EVENT MAY BE PAID. THIS INCLUDES THE ACCEPTANCE OF TIPS.

Two (2) organizations were issued income tax assessments totalling $50,554.61, including penalty and interest. The income from the operation of a non-licensed charity gaming event is considered unrelated income and subject to gross income tax, adjusted gross income tax, and supplemental net income tax per 45 IAC 18-5-1.

Note:

REVENUE GENERATED BY UNLICENSED EVENTS MAY BE SUBJECT TO INCOME TAXES PER 45 IAC 18-5-1.

Desk examinations are performed on financial reports submitted by organizations to the Charity Gaming Section of the Compliance Division. Those desk examinations resulted in an additional $26,900.00 in renewal fees from organizations who underreported gross receipts.

Statistics

Every organization that holds a charity gaming license is required to file a financial report for each license it has. The following statistics are based on financial reports that were received during the State of Indiana's Fiscal Year 1999 (July 1, 1998 - June 30, 1999). An organization cannot receive another gaming license until it has filed a financial report for its previous event.

Special Bingo	35,277.33
Total	$4,562,334.17

*The Indiana Department of Revenue received 160 late-filed charity gaming returns for FY99 gaming activity. Of those 160 organizations, 49 have annual bingo licenses and are not included in this report.

Financial Information by County

The following information is a breakdown of individual organizations by county. The information was obtained from all Forms CG-8, Annual Bingo Financial Reports, and Forms CG-9, Single Event Financial Reports, received during fiscal year 1998. The number of licenses issued during the fiscal year may differ from the number of financial reports actually received during the fiscal year.

Information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4. This includes all applications for exemption and all annual reports filed by the not-for-profit organizations under IC 6-2.1-3-19, IC 6-2.1-3-20, IC 6-2.1-3-21, and IC 6-2.1-3-22, which also includes information on the above mentioned forms.

Since an organization may hold more than one type of charity gaming license at a time, some names may appear more than once in the following listings.

Names also may be repeated within each license category. An unlimited number of door prize, raffle, and special bingo licenses may be issued to an organization during a year, as long as all required applications and fees have been received and approved by the Indiana Department of Revenue.

Annual bingo licenses are valid for one year from the date of issuance. Names may appear more than once in the annual bingo category if the organization filed an amended financial report for the previous year.
